CLARIN - European Research Infrastructure for Language Resources and Technology

CLARIN makes digital language resources available to scholars, researchers, students and citizen-scientists from all disciplines, especially in the humanities and social sciences, through single sign-on access. CLARIN offers long-term solutions and technology services for deploying, connecting, analyzing and sustaining digital language data and tools. CLARIN supports scholars who want to engage in cutting edge data-driven research, contributing to a truly multilingual European Research Area. Read more...

WELCOME TO #DARIAHTEACH

The #dariahTeach learning platform launched on 23 March 2017 in Lausanne, Switzerland with four courses and two workshops. Visit our courses, give us feedback, and think about becoming part of our community and contribute to the platform!

#dariahTeach is developing open source, community-driven, source, high quality, multilingual teaching materials for the digital arts and humanities. Begun in January 2015 and running through June 2017, #dariahTeach is funded through an Erasmus + Strategic Partnership Grant. The #dariahTeach consortium has seven partners, coordinated by Maynooth University, Ireland.

DH teaching material
open-source, high quality, multilingual teaching materials for the digital arts and humanities

Welcome to #dariahTeach Beta !

#dariahTeach is an open source, multilingual, community-driven platform for high quality teaching and training materials for the digital arts and humanities.

#dariahTeach was launched on 23 March 2017 with beta content. All modules will go through a rigorous post-launch review process. If you would like to form part of a Trusted User Group to improve our courses/workshops, please email #dariahTeach AT gmail.com with the subject line 'Trusted User Group' and let us know which course you would be interested in testing.

In the coming months we will be opening the platform for new content. Join us by contributing a course, a workshop, or a video!
